

POLICE EMERGENCY DRIVING

Course #2046

Police Emergency driving course is a four-day (32 hour) program designed to train Police Officers to properly handle a vehicle during emergency driving situations. The course is a realistic, high-stress, competency based; task related driving school that gives the student about 24 hours of actual driving time.

The course addresses the following areas:

- Civil and Criminal liabilities in emergency vehicle operations.
- The mechanics of driver control and proper driver attitude.
- Vehicle dynamics.
- Skid control.
- Various proficiency exercises require qualification

Materials to bring: Participants should bring a police vehicle outfitted with heavy-duty police suspension. Vehicle must be in sound mechanical condition, capable of passing a safety inspection. The course will be stressful on vehicle tires and therefore a good set of tires should be used, severely worn tires will be considered hazardous and will not be permitted on the course.
